Explanatory Notes.

1. When value is paid in lieu of grain assessment, the quantity of grain is to be credited and the value paid is to be shown in the body of the entry.
2. The balance outstanding at the end of the year should be shown in detail for each year.
3. It will be only necessary to give full details of Survey, Pot, and Falmi Numbers, acres and assessment once in five years, but in the meantime should any numbers, &c., be deducted or added on, then full particulars showing the additions or deductions to be given.
4. When value is recovered in lieu of grain assessment during the period of attachment of a village by Government, the amount should be shown on the debit side and the quantities of all kinds of grain for which the money is paid should be shown separately in the body of the entry. There is no necessity for showing similar details on the credit side. During the Khot's management remark No. 1 is to be followed.
5. In the case of a pure Khot village or a tenant-at-will, of course, no details as to Dhára, Daspara, &c., need at all be given.
6. All receipt-books are to be written up as shown in this form, viz., Jamábandi on the debit side and the receipts on the credit side; or, if convenient, Jamábandi may be written in detail first and then receipts immediately below.

RULES UNDER SECTION 40(d) OF THE ACT.

[a] Notn. No. 3451, Revenue, dated 2nd April 1908, B. G. G., 1908, Pt. I, p. 508.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 40, clause (d), of the Khoti Settlement Act, 1880 (Bom. I of 1880), the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules in supersession of Government Notification in the Revenue Department, No. 6794, dated the 11th September 1889, namely:—

Rules to determine the applicability of rules under section 214 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879, to Khoti villages.

1. No rule or order which shall be hereafter made under section 214 of the Bombay Land-Revenue Code, 1879, shall be applicable to villages to which the Khoti Settlement Act, 1880, extends, unless it is expressly directed in such rule or order, or in some subsequent rule or order, that it shall be applicable thereto.
2. Of the rules and orders at present in force under section 214 of the Bombay Land-Revenue Code, 1879, Nos. 9 to 36, both inclusive, 38, 43, 46 paragraph 2, 53, 54, 57 to 70, both inclusive, 76 to 84, both inclusive, 86, 87, 88 paragraphs 2, 89, 95 and 96 (proviso (a)), shall not be applicable to the said villages.
3. The rest of the said rules and orders shall be applicable to the said villages, subject in the undermentioned cases to the following modifications, namely:—

No. of rule.	Modification.
3	After the figures "16" in article 18 insert the words "and japtidars appointed by the Collector to manage attached villages".
45	For the words "village officers" read the words "village-accountant or japtidar, or of the Circle Inspector where there is no village-accountant or japtidar".
46, sub-rule (1)	Omit the figures and word "46 or" and for the last two words substitute the word "section".
99	After the word "village-accountant" wherever it occurs insert the word "japtidar".
103	In clause (4) for the words "village officer" substitute the words "revenue patel, village-accountant or japtidar," omit the figures "32", "33", "79", "80", "88" and the word and figures "or 89", insert the word "or" between the figures "45" and "46", and omit sub-clauses (a) and (c).

[a] For amendments in the Land Revenue Code Rules, which have since been made applicable to villages to which the Khoti Settlement Act, 1880, extends, vide Government Notifications No. 12022, Revenue, dated 24th November 1908, para. 2, No. 1359, dated 9th February 1909, No. 2814, dated 18th March 1909, para. 2, and No. 6445, dated 5th July 1909, printed at pages 640 and 641, infra.
